JUST ONE
PRODUCT

.. BUT
SO MANY USES

“Black Leaf 40”

When diluted according to directions for spraying, Black Leaf 40 becomes a volatile insecticide. It kills insects both by contact (wetting) and by fumes. This double-effect furnishes increased efficiency and quick killing power.

The spray gradually “fumes off” or evaporates from the foliage and fruit. Efficiency, rapidity of action, and its many uses make Black Leaf 40 a logical insecticide to rely upon.

Three Decades of Effective Service

Recommended by Colleges and Experiment Stations for 30 years, Black Leaf 40 has established a remarkable record.

In the GARDEN

Black Leaf 40 sprayed on shrubs, flowers, vines and vegetables controls certain insect pests (Aphis, Leafhoppers, most Thrips, Mealy Bug, Lace-bug, Leaf-miners, Crawling Young Scale, Slugs). Its odor, though faint, repels dogs. Black Leaf 40 mixed with hydrated lime makes an effective Nicotine Dust for use on many types of fruits and vegetables.

In the ORCHARD

A stand-by with fruit growers for killing Aphis, Budmoth, Leafhoppers, Red-bug. It does its own job and helps the efficiency of non-volatile poisons to which it may be added. Used with summer oil, it controls Codling Moth and eliminates the problem of residue removal at harvest.

In the POULTRY HOUSE

When thinly spread on tops of perches it kills body lice with no handling of the chickens; heavier and repeated applications control feather mites. Judge Black Leaf 40 by results. For less than a cent a chicken you can delouse your flock. A drop on back of chickens' necks kills head lice.

In the FARM YARD

Black Leaf 40 combined with copper sulphate is recommended as a drench for stomach and tape worms in sheep. For dipping to kill lice, scab and sheep tick, full instructions are given on packages.
